

OUR NEXT-DOOR NEIGHBORS.

Pickings by Star Reporters in Neighboring Cities and Towns.

LEXINGTON, KY.

The milk cases will be decided Monday. Lient, R. F. Jacobs, Jr., U. S. A., is in the city visiting relatives.

The "mam" party at the Baptist Church Thursday evening was well attended.

The little town of Buena Vista, Garrard County, contains a population of two hundred.

Rev. Z. L. Burrows, of Louisville, will preach at the First Baptist Church to-morrow.

Mr. Charles Steele, who was cut in the neck a few days ago, was able to appear on the streets yesterday.

Wm. Voorhies, Esq., of Remont, Ill., will spend the winter with his son, Mr. Chas. H. Voorhies, of this city.

Mr. A. Z. Mershon, of Richmond, was arrested Tuesday last by two Deputy U. S. Marshals on a charge of forgery.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. R. Harding and Miss Maggie B. Robinson, at Trinity Church, Danville, on the 22d.

Dr. W. H. Henson has sold his interest in the Apostolic Times to his partner, B. H. Cosine, who is now the sole proprietor.

The will of Patrick Daley, who died a few weeks ago, was admitted to probate Thursday. His property is estimated at $7,000.

Several freight cars were wrecked on the Big Sandy Railroad day before yesterday by the breaking of a coupling bolt. No person injured.

The Committee on Accounts of the City Council will audit no more accounts contracted by city employees, not ordered by the person authorized to contract debts for the city.

The Sheriff of Harrison Co. passed through the city yesterday, having in charge two prisoners for the Penitentiary, a white man named Granes, for horse stealing, and a black boy named Harrison Bowers, for arson.

Two more young colored chaps, who beat Willis Cole, an officer of the Colored Church, Sunday night last, were up before the Recorder Wednesday. Henry Rogers was fined $30 and costs, and Wesley Diggs $20 and costs. Another of the gang, who was also engaged in the assault, is at large.

HAMILTON.

Miss Louisa Schald, of Middletown, is visiting friends in this city.

Two Mollie Maguires engaged in a little retail fight on Shillito street Friday afternoon.

Mr. T. C. Clyne, of Connersville, Ind., an old Hamilton boy, paid his brother Joe a short visit.

Miss Jane Coombs will appear at Dixon's Opera-house on Wednesday evening, October 15th.

Mrs. M. Osborn had the pleasure of entertaining some of her young friends at Brownsville, Indiana, during the Fair.

Politicians are getting red hot for the election Tuesday next, when some defeated candidates will leave the polls singing "Home, Sweet Home."

Elder J. R. Gaff preaches from the following text to-morrow: "First, The Types of the Tabernacle." Second—"How the Apostles Preached Christ."

Harry Richards and James Adley were pulled in at the Station as pickpockets. They were trying their hand at the Fairgrounds, but were not sly enough for Officer Coddington.

Consequents among the many arrests yesterday was that of a man giving his name as Jake Smith. He had been out to the fair, lost all of his money at drinking and gambling, and was returning on one of the buses when this scrape occurred. The conductor asked him for the regular fare. 10 cents, when he replied by saying: "I'll shoot you 10 cents worth," and pulling out a loaded revolver was about to prove his statement when he was overcome and induced to put away the revolver. At the corner of third and High street, the bus stopped, all the passengers got out, and Jake was arrested by Officers Meyers and Woodward. He tore out the end of the bus, bit Meyers and created intense excitement, proving himself a bully beyond a question.

LUDLOW, KY.

The Rev. D. D. Akin will preach to-morrow morning in the Union Church, West Covington.

A number of our ladies spent a pleasant afternoon yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Henry Barr.

The Ludlow Reading Circle will give an interesting entertainment next Tuesday evening, extending a cordial invitation to all our citizens.

Services in the Presbyterian Church as usual to-morrow, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath School at 2:30 p. m. "Little Things" will be the subject of the morning sermon. The seats in the Church are always free.

HARRISON, O.

Henry Klemm has taken up his residence in the East End.

Dr. J. D. Bowles is improving the looks of his residence by a new roof and portico.

John Kern and family are on a visit this week in the country at his mother-in-law's, Mrs. Bateman.

Miss Louisa Neff, of Terre Haute, Ind., who accompanied Miss Carrie Seokatz, of this city arrived yesterday evening to remain one week.

Mr. Clark Miller, the obliging and accommodating conductor of the L. C. & L. Railroad has been commissioned the run between Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg on the Lawrenceburg Accommodation.

Quite a stir and excitement was occasioned by the alarm of fire given at 2 a. m. today. The fire originated in Jacob C. Wiles' clothing house, but being detected in time was extinguished without doing much damage.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

Mike Kennedy, disorderly, and Jacob Kenard, drunk and disorderly, were among the arrivals at Mast's Station last night.

The Railroad House, under its new management, thus far promises to be a hell-hole. There were strong indications this morning of a general fight.

An ice wagon, the property of Stewart Morrow, was left standing with a pair of nervous horses in front of Spence's saloon, on Market street, on Friday morning. The team became frightened at some passing object and reared about and turned east on Washington street, where, in front of Dudley's coal office, they collided with the buggy of John Castline, completely wrecking it.

Tom Coleman and a large combination of his stripe made the Lavee howl last night. They got up a general fight in McLaughlin's saloon, in the midst of which Chief Schuchman and men stepped in and gobbled Tom and another highly interested

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Announcements and Matters of Local Interest.

Bishop Jagger will visit the Episcopal Mission at Mt. Lookout to-morrow.

Rev. Dr. Cooper will preach at Lincoln Park Church morning and at night.

Rev. Dr. Batt preaches at the Presbyterian Church, Broadway, morning and at night.

Rev. Dr. Baird is still confined to his room, at his residence in Covington, by illness.

Mrs. Kelly will lead the temperance meeting at 200 Vine street to-morrow afternoon.

The funeral of Rev. F. X. Gangel, O. S. F., took place yesterday from St. Clement's Church.

Rev. C. W. Wendt will speak upon the topic, "A Glimpse at London," at the Unitarian Church.

Rev. Bishop Jagger will preach at the Church of Our Saviour, Mt. Auburn, to-morrow evening.

Rev. I. N. Stanger, at Christ's Church, to-morrow evening, will answer a young man's inquiries in last Monday's Gazette.

Rev. G. R. Alden will deliver an address, illustrated by blackboard exercises, at the Children's Home to-morrow afternoon.

Last month the dining and lodging room department of the Union Hotel gave away 408 meals, 731 lodgings and 587 leaves of bread.

Rev. S. H. Meade will preach at the Central Christian Church on "Home Wants," in the morning, and "Circumcision" in the evening.

The Sabbath-school of the Presbyterian Church at Comersville, Ind., will get the banner for the study of the Chester Catechism.

Rev. Dr. Edwards, of the Danville Theological Seminary, is supplying the Second Church, Presbyterian, of Lexington, for a few Sabbaths.

Rev. Frank S. Fitch will preach at the Seventh Street Congregational Church to-morrow morning on the subject, "The Christian Sabbath."

Archbishop Purcell confirmed ninety-nine persons at Ripley, O., last Sunday. The following day forty-eight were confirmed at Ardenheim.

At the Baptist Ministers' Conference next Monday, Rev. Dr. Duncan will open a discussion on the subject, "How to induce the youth to attend preaching service."

Rev. Robert Christie, of Louisville, Moderator of the Synod of Kentucky, will open his meeting at Mayville October 23d, with a sermon on the "Missionary Work of this Age."

Rev. Dr. S. K. Leavitt speaks at the Y. M. C. A. Hall this evening. Dr. West will teach the Bible class to-morrow afternoon, and to-morrow evening there will be general exercises.

The funeral of Fred Kroell, son of the late pastor of St. John's Protestant Church, corner of Twelfth and Elm streets, will take place from that church at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The young ladies of Mr. Bernard's Bible Class, at the Ninth-street Baptist Sunday-school, together with a number of invited guests, are spending the afternoon at College Hill gathering autumn leaves.

Abel Brewer, Esq., in receipt of a letter from Rome announcing that Rev. Mr. Powell, lately called to be rector of the Church of the Atonement at Riverside, will be with his parish on the second Sunday in October.

The Mt. Lookout Sunday-school will give a prize meeting in the Mt. Lookout Church to-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock. A very attractive programme, chiefly musical, has been prepared. The school will be assisted in its songs by the Mendelssohn Orchestra.

At a recent meeting held at Trinity Church, in behalf of the Women's Home Missionary Society, a resolution was adopted requesting the Presiding Elders of the two Cincinnati Districts to arrange for a visitation of the churches in the city in the interests of this Society.

Mr. Lucus Gatheboide, of the Order of St. Francis, has gone to Kansas to arrange for a College in the neighborhood of the German St. Boniface Colony. The Franciscans of this place, at the wish of Bishop Fink, of Leavenworth, will take charge of the institution. Mr. Philip Schott, of St. Joseph College, is also there.

The rehearsals of the United Catholic Choirs are held at Baldwin's Piano Rooms, No. 158 West Fourth street, near Elm, at 8 p. m. sharp: Monday for ladies, Wednesday for gentlemen. To-morrow, Sunday, the first mass rehearsal for ladies and gentlemen will be held at Washington Plat-form, Court street, near Elm, at the same hour.

The Synod of Cincinnati meets at Lebanon October 23d, and will celebrate the semi-centennial of its organization. In addition to the usual sermon by the Moderator, a historical discourse will be given by Rev. Dr. Skinner, and addresses made by those who are present from the ministers and elders who participated in its first meeting fifty years ago.

Death Record.
The following deaths have been placed on record since our last report:
Henry Roell, 1 hour, city.
Pat. Carney, 1 day, city.
Henry Hill, 2 weeks, city.
Unknown infant, city.
J. Schlagenweit, 13 mos. city.
Katie Hartkewich, 17 mos. city.
B. Kammerling, 19 mos. city.
Fred. Rundy, 3 mos. city.
Daisy Gilligan, 3 yrs. city.
H. Dinkelacker, 2 yrs. city.
Mary Moloney, 10 yrs. city.
Alice McKend, 4 yrs. city.
Henry Stratman, 2 yrs. city.
Louisa Mohr, 12 yrs. city.
Oscar DeCowsky, 3 yrs. city.
Anna Cooper, 25 yrs. England.
Jacob Kaufman, 45 yrs. Germany.
Unknown man, 40 yrs. unknown.
Peter Hilliard, 35 yrs. Ireland.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.
[Special River Dispatches to the Star.]
BROWNVILLE, Pa., Oct. 11—9:55 A. M.—River 3 feet 3 inches and stationary. Weather clear. Wind west.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 11—9:27 A. M.—Kankawha River 18 inches and falling. Weather clear. Wind southeast.

OIL CITY, Pa., Oct. 11—8:32 A. M.—Allegheny River 5 inches and standing. Weather clear. Wind west.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 11—12:05 P. M.—River 13 feet 7 inches below high-water mark. No arrivals. Departures to-day—Golden Rule, St. Louis. Weather clear and warm.

Cincinnati Dry Goods Market.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 11.
There was an active jobbing trade this week, and the volume of business showed no signs of decrease. The market is about steady.

Prices—Standards are quoted at 95¢/50¢, and 95¢/50¢ per yard.

SHOWS—Standard Eastern standards at 75¢/50¢, Western do. at 65¢/50¢, and seconds at 75¢/50¢.

Woolens—We quote New York Mills, 12¢; Wamsutter, 12¢; Fruit of the Loom, 9¢; Lonsdale, 9¢; and Hope 8¢ per yard.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Announcements and Matters of Local Interest.

Bishop Jagger will visit the Episcopal Mission at Mt. Lookout to-morrow.

Rev. Dr. Cooper will preach at Lincoln Park Church morning and at night.

Rev. Dr. Batt preaches at the Presbyterian Church, Broadway, morning and at night.

Rev. Dr. Baird is still confined to his room, at his residence in Covington, by illness.

Mrs. Kelly will lead the temperance meeting at 200 Vine street to-morrow afternoon.

The funeral of Rev. F. X. Gangel, O. S. F., took place yesterday from St. Clement's Church.

Rev. C. W. Wendt will speak upon the topic, "A Glimpse at London," at the Unitarian Church.

Rev. Bishop Jagger will preach at the Church of Our Saviour, Mt. Auburn, to-morrow evening.

Rev. I. N. Stanger, at Christ's Church, to-morrow evening, will answer a young man's inquiries in last Monday's Gazette.

Rev. G. R. Alden will deliver an address, illustrated by blackboard exercises, at the Children's Home to-morrow afternoon.

Last month the dining and lodging room department of the Union Hotel gave away 408 meals, 731 lodgings and 587 leaves of bread.

Rev. S. H. Meade will preach at the Central Christian Church on "Home Wants," in the morning, and "Circumcision" in the evening.

The Sabbath-school of the Presbyterian Church at Comersville, Ind., will get the banner for the study of the Chester Catechism.

Rev. Dr. Edwards, of the Danville Theological Seminary, is supplying the Second Church, Presbyterian, of Lexington, for a few Sabbaths.

Rev. Frank S. Fitch will preach at the Seventh Street Congregational Church to-morrow morning on the subject, "The Christian Sabbath."

Archbishop Purcell confirmed ninety-nine persons at Ripley, O., last Sunday. The following day forty-eight were confirmed at Ardenheim.

At the Baptist Ministers' Conference next Monday, Rev. Dr. Duncan will open a discussion on the subject, "How to induce the youth to attend preaching service."

Rev. Robert Christie, of Louisville, Moderator of the Synod of Kentucky, will open his meeting at Mayville October 23d, with a sermon on the "Missionary Work of this Age."

Rev. Dr. S. K. Leavitt speaks at the Y. M. C. A. Hall this evening. Dr. West will teach the Bible class to-morrow afternoon, and to-morrow evening there will be general exercises.

The funeral of Fred Kroell, son of the late pastor of St. John's Protestant Church, corner of Twelfth and Elm streets, will take place from that church at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The young ladies of Mr. Bernard's Bible Class, at the Ninth-street Baptist Sunday-school, together with a number of invited guests, are spending the afternoon at College Hill gathering autumn leaves.

Abel Brewer, Esq., in receipt of a letter from Rome announcing that Rev. Mr. Powell, lately called to be rector of the Church of the Atonement at Riverside, will be with his parish on the second Sunday in October.

The Mt. Lookout Sunday-school will give a prize meeting in the Mt. Lookout Church to-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock. A very attractive programme, chiefly musical, has been prepared. The school will be assisted in its songs by the Mendelssohn Orchestra.

At a recent meeting held at Trinity Church, in behalf of the Women's Home Missionary Society, a resolution was adopted requesting the Presiding Elders of the two Cincinnati Districts to arrange for a visitation of the churches in the city in the interests of this Society.

Mr. Lucus Gatheboide, of the Order of St. Francis, has gone to Kansas to arrange for a College in the neighborhood of the German St. Boniface Colony. The Franciscans of this place, at the wish of Bishop Fink, of Leavenworth, will take charge of the institution. Mr. Philip Schott, of St. Joseph College, is also there.

The rehearsals of the United Catholic Choirs are held at Baldwin's Piano Rooms, No. 158 West Fourth street, near Elm, at 8 p. m. sharp: Monday for ladies, Wednesday for gentlemen. To-morrow, Sunday, the first mass rehearsal for ladies and gentlemen will be held at Washington Plat-form, Court street, near Elm, at the same hour.

The Synod of Cincinnati meets at Lebanon October 23d, and will celebrate the semi-centennial of its organization. In addition to the usual sermon by the Moderator, a historical discourse will be given by Rev. Dr. Skinner, and addresses made by those who are present from the ministers and elders who participated in its first meeting fifty years ago.

Death Record.
The following deaths have been placed on record since our last report:
Henry Roell, 1 hour, city.
Pat. Carney, 1 day, city.
Henry Hill, 2 weeks, city.
Unknown infant, city.
J. Schlagenweit, 13 mos. city.
Katie Hartkewich, 17 mos. city.
B. Kammerling, 19 mos. city.
Fred. Rundy, 3 mos. city.
Daisy Gilligan, 3 yrs. city.
H. Dinkelacker, 2 yrs. city.
Mary Moloney, 10 yrs. city.
Alice McKend, 4 yrs. city.
Henry Stratman, 2 yrs. city.
Louisa Mohr, 12 yrs. city.
Oscar DeCowsky, 3 yrs. city.
Anna Cooper, 25 yrs. England.
Jacob Kaufman, 45 yrs. Germany.
Unknown man, 40 yrs. unknown.
Peter Hilliard, 35 yrs. Ireland.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.
[Special River Dispatches to the Star.]
BROWNVILLE, Pa., Oct. 11—9:55 A. M.—River 3 feet 3 inches and stationary. Weather clear. Wind west.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 11—9:27 A. M.—Kankawha River 18 inches and falling. Weather clear. Wind southeast.

OIL CITY, Pa., Oct. 11—8:32 A. M.—Allegheny River 5 inches and standing. Weather clear. Wind west.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 11—12:05 P. M.—River 13 feet 7 inches below high-water mark. No arrivals. Departures to-day—Golden Rule, St. Louis. Weather clear and warm.

Cincinnati Live Stock Market.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 11—2 P. M.
The following are the receipts and shipments of live stock for the past 24 hours:

Cattle..... 732
Hogs..... 1105
Sheep..... 921

RECEIPTS. Shipments
CATTLE—Market is steady and quiet. We quote: Common at $10.00 45¢, fair to good light at $10.00 45¢, fair to good medium at $10.00 45¢, and select butchers at $10.00 45¢ per cental, gross.

SHEEP—Market quiet and steady. Common to fair at $2.50 25¢, and good to choice at $3.00 25¢.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Wheat: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Corn: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Rye: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Barley: November, $1.13; December, $1.15.

WHEAT—Market is steady and quiet. We quote: Common at $1.13 15¢, fair to good light at $1.13 15¢, fair to good medium at $1.13 15¢, and select butchers at $1.13 15¢ per cental, gross.

CATTLE—Market is steady and quiet. We quote: Common at $1.13 15¢, fair to good light at $1.13 15¢, fair to good medium at $1.13 15¢, and select butchers at $1.13 15¢ per cental, gross.

SHEEP—Market quiet and steady. Common to fair at $2.50 25¢, and good to choice at $3.00 25¢.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Wheat: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Corn: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Rye: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Barley: November, $1.13; December, $1.15.

WHEAT—Market is steady and quiet. We quote: Common at $1.13 15¢, fair to good light at $1.13 15¢, fair to good medium at $1.13 15¢, and select butchers at $1.13 15¢ per cental, gross.

CATTLE—Market is steady and quiet. We quote: Common at $1.13 15¢, fair to good light at $1.13 15¢, fair to good medium at $1.13 15¢, and select butchers at $1.13 15¢ per cental, gross.

SHEEP—Market quiet and steady. Common to fair at $2.50 25¢, and good to choice at $3.00 25¢.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Wheat: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Corn: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Rye: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Barley: November, $1.13; December, $1.15.

WHEAT—Market is steady and quiet. We quote: Common at $1.13 15¢, fair to good light at $1.13 15¢, fair to good medium at $1.13 15¢, and select butchers at $1.13 15¢ per cental, gross.

CATTLE—Market is steady and quiet. We quote: Common at $1.13 15¢, fair to good light at $1.13 15¢, fair to good medium at $1.13 15¢, and select butchers at $1.13 15¢ per cental, gross.

SHEEP—Market quiet and steady. Common to fair at $2.50 25¢, and good to choice at $3.00 25¢.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Wheat: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Corn: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Rye: November, $1.13; December, $1.15; Barley: November, $1.13; December, $1.15.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE CINCINNATI MARKET.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 11—2 P. M.

BREADSTUFFS.

The market for breadstuffs has been firm with an upward tendency in prices.

Flour has had a good consumptive demand with a firm market. Fancy quoted at $6.00 50¢, family at $5.50 50¢, extra at $5.00 50¢, and superfine at $4.50 50¢.

Wheat has a firm market and is higher, with good demand. Red is now selling at $1.13 22¢ for choice, and $1.13 19¢ for prime sample on spec.

Barley has a firm market and the demand active. Prime to choice sample held at 70¢ per bu., and the inside figure obtained for No. 2 graded.

Oats in moderate demand and steady. Mixed quoted at 25¢ 50¢, and white prime to choice at 31¢ 50¢ per bu. on arrival.

Corn has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Barley has a fair demand, and steady. Fall selling to-day at 55¢ for No. 3, and 53¢ for choice sample. Spring at 60¢ 50¢ per bu. for sample, as to quality.

PROVISIONS.
Meat market has been firm and advanced in prices, but at close is steady at $10 per bu.

Beacon has had a steady and quiet market with light offerings. Quoted shoulders at $14.00 50¢, and hams at $14.00 50¢, and extra at $14.00 50¢.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.

Butter has been in fair demand and firm. No. 2 mixed on track sold to-day at 45¢. Prime mixed corn selling at 48¢ on track. White shell quoted at 55¢ per bu.